Veolia Transportation Wins Contract Renewal in South Bend, IN

Three-year contract includes two-year option

South Bend, IN –August 7, 2012 – Veolia Regional Vice President Steve Shaw announced the renewal of its South Bend, Indiana transit contract. In a vote the TRANSPO Board of Directors awarded Veolia a three-year contract that includes one two-year option.

In making the announcement Shaw stated, "Veolia takes great pride in the work we do and the service we provide for our clients. TRANSPO is a valued client and we look forward to continuing to provide the same quality service they've received since we first started working with them in 1999."

Veolia employs 119 workers who provide both paratransit and fixed route service for local residents. Over the next three years Veolia will be implementing additional programs that will focus on both safety and customer service.
